

Photos: Getty Images

Concerned about
Barack Obama?
You should be.

His Dangerous Views on Israel Have Just Been Endorsed by Pat Buchanan

Senator Barack Obama has an admirer – political commentator Pat Buchanan. Both have a history of being dangerously wrong on issues important to Israel.

Buchanan, a leading anti-Israel voice in American politics, said recently his position on Israel is a lot closer to Barack Obama's.¹ Dangerous.

Buchanan praises Barack Obama for wanting to meet personally, without preconditions, with leaders of Iran to resolve differences with the United States. "I think Barack is right, we ought to talk to the Iranians," Buchanan said.² Reckless.

And what does Pat Buchanan think about Sen. Obama's pro-Palestinian rhetoric? "Frankly, [Barack Obama] is right to say the Palestinian people have got a terrible deal over there and their suffering ought to be recognized. That's Obama's position. It's my position."³

The Anti-Defamation League says Buchanan "publicly espouses racist, anti-Semitic, anti-Israel and anti-immigrant views."⁴ Yet, Buchanan calls his views on Israel, Iran and the Palestinians the same as Obama's. Wrong.

Pat Buchanan says he shares the same views on Israel as Barack Obama. Those views are dangerous, reckless and wrong.

¹MSNBC, Politico.com, 9/2/08; ²MSNBC, Politico.com, 9/2/08; ³MSNBC, Politico.com, 9/2/08; ⁴www.adl.org/special_reports/buchanan_own_words/buchanan_intro.asp

Join us. The Republican Jewish Coalition is the largest membership organization dedicated to building a strong, effective and respected Jewish Republican voice in Washington and across the country. Log on to www.rjchq.org and join us or contribute today to advance our pro-America, pro-security, pro-economic growth issues and increase our ability to reach more Americans with our message. Paid for by the Republican Jewish Coalition.

